The Main Hotel Tower façade features undulating and sinuous horizontal patterns on dark brown glass created by high quality ceramic fritting.

2

The Secondary Tower is expressed by subtle color variations in the glazing module, with varied hues of browns and bronzes.

3

Undulating stone facades with contrasting horizontal ribbons compliment the sleek Hotel Tower whilst seemingly 'nestling into' the ground and native surroundings.

6

A sweeping, animated water feature expresses layered waterfalls, integrated with contemporary stone walls and landscape focal points.

5

Crisp frameless glazing of the projecting Suites Pod incorporates a gleaming white mirrored surface contrasting with the surrounding natural colors and patterns.

4

The sweeping all-glass Porte Cochere incorporates branch-like Armatures suggesting natural landscape forms in a fresh, modern expression.
