NOTICES OF VIOLATIONS, DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS, AND COMPLAINTS
January 2009 through March 2014

CAESARS ENTERTAINMENT CORPORATION

1. Property: Caesars Entertainment Corporation
Regulatory Agency: Illinois Gaming Board
Action: Complaint for Disciplinary Action
Case Number: DC-11-13
Date Open: 1/25/11
Allegation: Caesars Entertainment failed to adequately review duplicate patron accounts created when Caesars acquired Planet Hollywood. This failure caused Illinois Self-Excluded Patrons to receive promotional materials from Harrah's Joliet and Harrah's Metropolis.

Proposed Penalty: $100,000
Status: Payment of $100,000 made on 3/29/11.

2. Property: Harrah's Las Vegas
Caesars Las Vegas
Caesars Entertainment Corporation
Regulatory Agency: Nevada Gaming Control Board
Action: Order to Show Cause (issued to Harrah's Las Vegas)
Complaint (Harrah's, Caesars Palace and Caesars Entertainment)
Case Number: OSC-CC-11-02
NGC 12-03
Date Open: 12/1/2011
Allegations: The property allowed an underage patron to gamble and served the patron alcoholic beverages on 8/3/2011. Employees who served the beverages to the patron did not ask for identification (ID), and the gaming employees who were in contact with the patron did not ask for identification. (The matter was self-reported to the Board.)
Complaint:
Count One: The incident at Harrah's Las Vegas as described above.
Count Two: On 11/30/11, Caesars Las Vegas served an underage patron alcoholic beverages and did not request ID.
Count Three: On 1/9 and 1/10/12, Harrah's Las Vegas allowed an underage patron to consume alcoholic beverages and gamble without any employees requesting ID.
Count Four: On 5/14/12, Caesars Las Vegas allowed an underage patron to gamble after presenting ID indicating he was under 21 years of age.
Count Five: Caesars Entertainment's failure to take sufficient action with regard to its licensed subsidiaries to prevent the incidents outlined in the above counts reflect or tend to reflect poorly on the reputation of gaming.

Penalty: $100,000
Status: Response submitted 2/6/2012 advising of corrective actions taken related to this matter. Stipulation for Settlement and Order approved by the Nevada Gaming Control Board on 7/9/2012. Payment made 7/27/2012. A written response was provided to the Board on September 24, 2012 providing an update on all corrective actions taken to ensure compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.
