

Games of Chance and Bingo Distributors and Manufacturers Application Instructions

Any person, partnership, joint venture, corporation, or other business entity seeking to manufacture, sell or distribute games of chance and/or bingo supplies, devices, or equipment to any organization licensed to conduct games of chance and/or bingo, licensed games of chance and/or bingo supplier, or licensed authorized games of chance and/or bingo lessor in New York State, must obtain a supplier's license from the New York State Gaming Commission. Distributors and manufacturers of gaming supplies and equipment are considered suppliers of such.

Licenses are valid for a calendar year. New applications may be submitted at any time with an initial application fee of $25.00, payable to "New York State Gaming Commission." Renewal applications must be postmarked on or before December 31st. Annual reports of gross sales and applicable license fees are due on or before January 15th.

If you wish to secure a license, you are required to complete the following forms. While there is no specific order to how these forms may be completed, we recommend you proceed in the order presented. All questions on each form must be completed in full, failure to complete any part will delay the processing of your application.
